SUNDAY 14th SEPTEMBER 2025

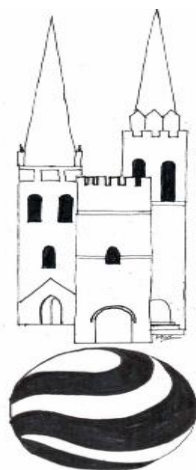

The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity

Fáilte – Welcome

We are very glad to welcome everyone who worships in our churches today. We hope you will feel at home among us, especially if you are joining us for worship for the first time.

Please take a moment to check that you have turned off your 'phone before worship begins.

The Church of Ireland is a part of the worldwide Anglican Communion. We are glad to welcome all baptized Christians, who normally receive communion in their own churches, to receive communion at all celebrations of the Eucharist.

PROCLAIMING & RECEIVING THE WORD

Exodus 32: 7-14

The Lord said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" ' The Lord said to Moses, 'I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation. 'But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, 'O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, "It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth"? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, "I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever." And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Luke 15: 1-10

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, 'This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.' So he told them this parable: 'Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost." Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. 'Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, "Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost." Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.'

CHURCH & COMMUNITY LIFE

ELIZABETH BOWEN The preacher at today's Service at 3.30pm in Farahy Church will be the Very Reverend Dermot Dunne, Dean of Christ Church Dublin. All are welcome to attend this service of Choral Evensong.

ST JOHN'S CHURCH BUTTEVANT There will be a meeting at 7.00 pm on Wednesday 17th September in St John's for people who would have a connection with the church (now closed) to have their views heard on the future of the building. The church was leased to the Friends of St John's but this has ended and Mallow Union of Parishes now need to see what viable options there are for the building.

CULTURE NIGHT Free Concert in St James's Church Mallow organised by Mallow Arts Collective 7.30 pm on Friday 19th September.

THE BISHOP is consulting with regular worshippers in parishes across the Diocese over the future direction and growth of the Church of Ireland. Representatives from parishes in East and North Cork are invited to attend a meeting at Midleton Hall on Monday 22nd September. One member of the Select Vestry from each of our three churches is invited; but the majority of those being invited are regular worshippers who are not Select Vestry members. If you wish to attend, please speak to your churchwardens.
